for a one-mile road serving five families than there is for a five-mile road serving one family"
and the county is more able financially to build the shorter, efficient road first. There would be no opportunity to favor any special group to the detriment of the others, least there would and could be a change in supervisors every four years. Under the present outdated, non-responsive supervisorial districts there is small chance for change.

The civic and governmental affairs committee of the Grass Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce drafted the boundaries of Proposition A following a two-year study. The proposal was placed on the Nov. 8 ballot by initiative petition since that was the only method open to place it before the voters. Initiative petition is democracy itself in action and is the last resort when regular channels fail or are closed to qualified requests.

According to the state law, supervisors may redistrict by a four-fifths vote of the full board.
This has never been done in Nevada county and is an almost impossible method of redistricting.
Human nature being what it is,
no supervisor will redistrict if it threatens his reelection chances, good government and equality of representation not withstanding;
therefore redistricting should be either automatic or left to the county voters who should have some say as to just how they are to be governed.

Members of the JCC civic governmental committee will welcome the opportunity to discuss Proposition A before any group or organization and likewise invite any member of the "opposition" group to appear at the same meeting. Dial 273-6090 for program reservation, any time, any place, any organization. We believe an informed voter is an intelligent voter. Let's deal in facts and positive statements, not generalities and innuendoes.

Dixon Men Killed in Plunge Off 40

Two Dixon, Solano county, men were instantly killed at 9:45 o'clock Thursday night, when their vehicle plunged over an embankment on Highway 40 east of Truckee, after narrowly missing
a passenger bus.

They were: James S. Palmer,
44, driver of the car and Henry F.
Forden, 51. Their bodies were moved to the Truckee Colonial Mortuary.

The accident, which was witnessed by the bus driver, took place 1.5 miles west of the California-Nevada state line.

Palmer and Forden were westbound when their car crossed over the center area into the eastbound
lane, just missed a large bus, struck the outside highway curb and took off in the air for a 75
foot arc.

The car struck on the front end.
Both men were killed on impact.

California Highway Patrol officers said the double fatality took place at 9:45 p.m.

Hi Bible Club to Hold Rally, Film Saturday

This Saturday night at 7:30 p.m.
the High School Bible Club will hold its October rally at the Congregational Church located at the corner of Church Street and Neal Street. The film "Teenage Rock" will be shown.

"Teenage Rock" is a portrayal
of the lives of a high school basketball star and his girl friend, one of the cheerleaders. This film takes a bold, frank look at the morality problems facing modern high school students and, in contrast, portrays the Gospel with such clarity that even those who have never heard it before can understand its meaning. All young people are invited to attend this inspirational film.

GERMAN IMMIGRANTS,

es. Usually the church ordinances were administered immediately before departure—children were baptized, or youngsters affirmed under age, by special permission, so that they could accompany their parents to America. The many references to the Lord's Supper in common before leaving, are proof of strong hold the things of religion had on many of our ancestors. The pastor at Grünwettersbach even prepared baptismal certificates [Taufscheine] for the emigrants from his parish, or sent them after them to America.

Not that they were all religious, however! A few references 'scandalous lives' occur. Several of the young unmarried men brought illegitimate children to America. Hans Jerg her of Neckartenzlingen, was according to the record of his father, "very much given to stealing." We are often in danger of idealizing the Pennsylvania Germans, and lists like these will show that among the emigrants there were both the deeply religious and the indifferent, the industrious and the shiftless. If you doubt the latter, read the description of Johann Heinrich Brand of Neckartenzlingen, whose occupation was that of "peddler and fisherman." In his request to emigrate, Brand described himself as a soldier's son, who Gerber writes had never learned a trade, and had to support himself by "peddling notions." Or take the case of Johannes Mack of Neckartenzlingen, who, as Gerber writes, was "always somewhat frivolous, didn't like to work, but was trying in vain to get rich by other schemes"! Or Christoph, "a restless fellow here", who left Beutelsbach in 1746 for Pennsylvania, without farewell either to his father or his pastor.

in Pennsylvania as organist and schoolmaster, and has left us a lively picture of the province at midcentury in his Gottlieb Mittelberger's Journey to Pennsylvania in the Year 1750 and Return to Germany in the Year 1751, Containing Not Only a Description of the Country According to its Present Condition, But Also a Detailed Account of the Sad and Unfortunate Circumstances of Most of the Germans that Have Emigrated, or are Emigrating to That Country, (tr. Carl Theodore Eben) (Philadelphia: John McVey, 1898). Another interesting account, more particularly of the journey across the ocean rather than of the New World itself, is the story of a well-to-do and apparently well-educated lady from Herrenberg, who came to America in 1786, to seek her husband, who was then in Carolina who had come several years previously, and, after finding conditions here, to return for their children. The name of the lady is not disclosed, but the document, quoted in Kapff, op. cit., pp. 19-20, presents a most intimate picture of life on an immigrant ship.

These, I say, are exceptions to the rule, but they were "among us" nevertheless. We hope the majority deserved the tribute the pastor of Aich paid to Franz Kuhn and wife, in calling them "especially God-fearing, pious, dutiful, upright, honest, and honorable."

Emigrants from Wuerttemberg

NOTE ON THE EDITING: The German edition of the Gerber lists is in two volumes, with the emigrants listed chronologically under the villages from which they came, while the present edition makes one alphabetical list of the 735c names. The numbers "1" and "2" after each name signify which volume of Gerber the information is from, "1" standing for his Beiträge and "2" for his Neue Beiträge. An attempt has been made to identify the date of emigration and the place of settlement in Pennsylvania. Dr. Gerber used Rupp's Immigrants, but for identification of the emigrants only in Volume II. The American editor collated the names with certain basic Pennsylvania source materials, resulting in the more or less positive identification of some 435 of the names. The sources used for collation are (1) the ship lists, cited as "Hinke"; (2) the provincial tax lists and records of warranties of land, in the Pennsylvania Archives, Series III, volumes XI-XXVI, cited as "3PA"; and (3) the Abstracts of Wills of Philadelphia, Berks, Northampton, Lancaster and Northumberland Counties, available at the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, cited as "——County Will Abstracts, [Volume]——, [Page]——, GSP." The lists have been further collated with the Moravian burial records for Bethlehem, Nazareth and Lititz, published in (1) Augustus Schultze, "Guide to the Old Moravian Cemetery of Bethlehem, Pa., 1742-1910" in the Proceedings of the Pennsylvania German Society, Volume XXI; Edward T. Kluge, "The Moravian Graveyards at Nazareth, Pa., 1744-1904", in Transactions of the Moravian Historical Society, Volume VII; and Abraham Reinke Beck, "The Moravian Graveyards of Lititz, Pa., 1744-1905", ibid., volume VII. Lastly, the editor has used Edward W. Hocker's helpful Genealogical Data Relating to the German Settlers of Pennsylvania and Adjacent Territory from Advertisements in German Newspapers Published in Philadelphia and Germantown 1743-1800 (Typescript, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa., 1935), 300 pages, copies of which are available at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, and the Newberry Library in Chicago. The editor's collated material always follows upon the sign //. Additions or corrections to any part of these lists will be welcomed by the editor.—D.Y.

Marriage certificate signed by: Thomas, Christian, and Catharine Harlan. (*Records of Lurgan Mo. George Harlan settled at first about where the village of Centreville, New Castle Co., Delaware, now is, and the early meetings were held at his home. Later he removed farther up Brandywine Creek, and purchased 474 acres of land in Kennett, now Pennsbury, Township, Chester County. While living here he had for his neighbors over the creek, in a great bend, a settlement of Indians. After they had gone away he obtained, in 1701, a warrant for 200 acres of land in the bend of the creek, granted "in regard of the great trouble and charge he has bore in fencing and maintaining the same for the said Indians while living thereon." He died in 1714, and was buried by the side of his wife at Centre Meeting House.

In his will, dated 2 Mo. 21, 1714, probated 8 Mo. 2, 1714, George Harlan mentions his brother Michael Harlan, his servant Mary Mathews, and directs that his body be interred in the new burying ground on Alphonsus Kirk's land.—Hist. Chester Co., p. 587; Chester County Wills.

pionship. Up to the twelfth it was anybody's fight. The twelfth and thirteenth were Corbett's. The fourteenth round lasted one minute and three quarters.

Corbett landed a left jab on Fitz's head. Fitz countered with a right swing on Corbett's neck and had plazed the champion a little. Fitz then landed a left hand jab on Corbett's stomach which sent Corbett to his knees with a frightful look of agony on his face.

The time-keepers called the seconds and counted ten, but Corbett came to his feet. He rushed at Fitz and endeavored to strike him, but was prevented. Referee Siler gave the fight to Fitzsimmons.

The great fight was followed by two minor events; one between Green and Smith, won by the former; and the other between Hawkins and Flaherty,
won by Hawkins.

The Arbor Vite Party.

The Arbor Vite club's dancing party at Turner Hall, Wednesday evening, was a very pleasant affair. The hall was prettily decorated with brakes and ivy
and Councilman Cuff's flag of "old Erin"
had a place alongside "old Glory" above the stage. Green neckties were the vogue with the young men and the young ladies were not unmindful of the color of the Emerald Isle in their pretty dresses.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Raney's orchestra struck up the grand march, and from then until past midnight the dancing continued. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

The committees of the club to whom the success of the party was due, were:

much gratified the instant De Young's name was mentioned.

"I am highly pleased," he is reported to have said, "that you have met Mr. De Young to me. I really want to talk to you about this gentleman."
He is glad of the opportunity that presents itself.

With this little speech delivered, President grasped both Perkins and
him and hauled them off into a room
where no others present could overhear
the conversation. The talk about De Young was quite long.

It may be stated that the President has decided to tender the San Francisco
editor a foreign mission of prominence,
but just which one cannot be learned yet. There is a possibility that he will become an ambassador. In the event he will go either to Berlin or Rome. These are the only vacant missions of this kind still within the gift of the President. If he is not designated Ambassador either to Germany or Belgium, Switzerland or some other diplomatic post of prominence, information from the White House together with that which has leaked out from California members, indicate the editor of the Chronicle, to use a phrase, "is strictly in it."

As before stated, the President poses to treat Californians very liberally. In addition to the selection of De Young for an important foreign mission, practically promised to name a Californian for Consul to Hongkong and Shanghai.

Now, as to what Hanna said,
concerning California appointments,
a member of the Golden State delegation Hanna is said to have used these words:

"The President is disposed to do everything possible for you in the matter of making appointments. There are men, however, in California that he will be taken care of by this administration. The gentlemen I refer to are Judge Waymire and Joseph S. Spear."

It is presumed that the President will make Waymire either United States
circuit Judge, to succeed McKenna, Judge Morrow is promoted to the vacancy will nominate Waymire
Morrow's successor on the 1st Bench. The indications still point to the selection of Morrow as McKenna's successor. Of course, if Waymire is pointed to the vacancy on the 1st States District Bench, De Haven will be left out in the cold. A member of California delegation also stated that if Spear be not appointed Chief of Customs at San Francisco, it is virtually certain the President will nominate him for a position equally as important.

California is now to have the largest chemical works in the United States. Some time ago the Peyton Chemical Co. began the establishment of its plant about two miles from Martinez. The company will engage largely in the manufacture of sulphuric acid and nitric acid and a contract has been entered into whereby it is to furnish these acids to the California and Giant Powder companies, both of which have heretofore manufactured for themselves. Millions of pounds of the acids are needed in the manufacture of explosives during the year, and the buildings of the chemical company will of necessity cover a large area of ground and give employment to a great number of men.

Heretofore sulphuric acid has been manufactured from sulphur brought here from Japan. The new company will manufacture the stuff from copper ore. This will help out men owning low-grade copper mines in California. The sulphur in the ore can be saved, and thus the mines can be worked to an advantage. It will be six months before the plant of the chemical company can be completed.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. H. H. H.

A powerful engine cannot be run with weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. J. H. Lovejoy

Like bad dollars, all counterfeits of their tablet "United We Stand." Westmoreland county, Va., describes itself simply as "The Birthplace of Washington." Greece, the "Mother of Ancient Liberty," sends from the Parthenon "This Ancient Stone as a Testimony of Honor and Admiration."

The Turkish inscription, it is said, was written by the court poet and bears a date in a "year of the Hegira." One of the longest inscriptions appears on a stone presented by some Chinese Christians of Che Heang, China, in 1853. It declares George Washington to have been braver than Tsau-Tsau or Lin-Pi.

"A likeness of Shakespeare stands out on a stone at the twenty-sixth landing, as the short level spaces between the flights of stairs are called, bearing these words above, "All that live must die," and below, "A tribute of respect from the ladies and gentlemen of the dramatic profession of America."—Youth's Companion.

Handwriting Cannot Be Changed.

The inexperienced ones are blissfully unaware that handwriting is really a physical characteristic of the human body, says The Home Magazine, which is innately peculiar to its owner. You may indeed, after its general form, like the man who writes anonymous notes, or cover it with make up like the man who forges a signature—the actor does both to his voice and face on the stage—but this, after all, is the most you can do. You cannot destroy or even temporarily get rid of the characteristics of your writing itself. It is as much a part of the expression of your being as your manner of talking or your gait in walking, and that it cannot be destroyed is the more certain because no one, no matter how much study he might give it, could ever find out all of the unconscious characteristics of his handwriting.

"Somebody has invented a ring which will cure rheumatism."

"Well, Edmund, if I had another diamond ring I think it would make my rheumatism feel better."—Chicago Record.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Jos. Levinson, Druggist.

THE RUSSELL MAP OF KENTUCKY

This map, originally produced in 1794, was the first good map of Kentucky and the adjoining territories. It shows seven subdivisions of the three original Kentucky counties—Lincoln, Fayette and Jefferson. The Russell map was republished in 1795 with slight revision by John Reed in New York, but without author's name.

These are abstracts I made from the microfilmed Fauquier County, VA Deed Books and from photocopies made by the Court Clerk. I'm not very good at reading old handwriting so there are probably errors. I would urge you to consult the originals and NOT use my abstracts for anything more than a pointer to the source records. You may find a few scattered notes to myself here also.

Mrs. Rose H. Porter, wife of Chas. B. Porter ceased the uneven struggle waged for nearly two years against an incurable malady. Her death occurred at Woodland Sanitarium last evening at about seven o'clock, surrounded by immediate members of her family.

It is nearly two years since the unfortunate matron was first attacked by a kidney affection that baffled the efforts of physicians, who could not do more than palliate her sufferings. She was always patient and courageous, anxious to live for husband and children and with a pleasant smile for everyone.

The maiden name of deceased was Rose H. Henning, her birth place near Tremont on the well known Henning farm located about three miles south of Davis. While a child she came with her mother and brother, L. J. Henning, to Davis, where she completed grammar school and later attended Mills College, specializing in violin music. Later her teacher at Mills removed to San Francisco, and where she continued her violin training, becoming quite proficient, devoting some of her earlier years in giving instruction to others.

In August, 1911, she was married to Chas. B. Porter, now city Trustee and continued to reside in Davis. The union resulted in two children, the older, David now 12 years of age, and a daughter, Diana, aged five. Hers was a most sweet, lovable character, with ever a smile for family and the host of friends attracted by her gentle disposition, and kindly attitude. The bereaved husband and orphaned children have the sincere sympathy of everybody.

Services will be held at the family home, 239 J street, tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock. Interment in Davis Cemetery.

DAVIS

The third generation of two of the oldest families in Yolo County was united last Saturday in the marriage of Miss Lucille Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Greene, Plainfield, and William B. Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gordon of South Putah.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Charles E. and Bortha L. Greene, pioneers of 1852, while the groom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Gordon, who settled in Yolo County in 1856. Mrs. H. O. Purinton, late of Plainfield, but now a resident of Sacramento, is the grandmother of Mrs. Gordon.

Rev. Nathan Fiske of Davis performed the ceremony in the Presbyterian Church at Sacramento in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride was attended by Mrs. Lawrence Noonan of Sacramento as matron of honor. George Gordon, cousin of the groom, acted as best man.

ARTOIS: Aged Woman Dies—Mrs. Chris Lohse, for more than forty years a resident of Artois, died yesterday morning. She was a native of Germany and was 70 years of age. Surviving her are her husband, Chris Lohse, and son, Arthur Lohse. The funeral took place today.

Mrs. Pero Dead

After a long illness during which there was considerable suffering, Mrs. George Pero died when she fell from a rocking chair while asleep.

A little daughter came to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mace so close to Christmas that they justly regard the arrival as the best gift that Santa Claus brought to this section.

Mrs. P. M. Weckler left for Kansas, Tuesday, because of the sudden death of her mother.

MRS. MARY E. BIELAR DIES IN HER 105TH YEAR

At the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Mae Floreth in this place, Mrs. Mary Bielar, Dixon's oldest resident and the most aged white woman in the state, departed her long and eventful life at half past nine on Wednesday night. She was seventy-one days over her 105th birthday.

Mrs. Bielar died peacefully, just a dropping off to final rest, no pain, no regrets, no trying to hang to life. The old lady was willing to go, realizing that she had lived longer than the allotted span of life, could be of no help, and was ready to have the scroll of life closed and her soul wing its way to elsewhere. She had weakened somewhat of late, but as late as supper time on Wednesday said she was hungry and would like a soft boiled egg. She knew what was going on about her, recognized the voices and if she could not answer audibly moved her head.

For several years relatives and friends and sometimes strangers had called on her birthday to visit and pay homage to the dear old lady, whose life had been so wisely, serenely and helpfully led that she could round out over a century of time. One of her outstanding characteristics was that she never worried, and there was often occasion enough—a trip across the ocean in 1845 in the small and slow-going vessels of those days, life in early New Orleans, journeys to other places, across the dreary, Indian infested plains and early day settlement in the upper California foothill section brought times of serious thinking. But Mrs. Bielar never lost her nerve, took things as they came, confident in her Christian faith and cheerfulness that they would always end right.

Mrs. Bielar came of hardy Swiss stock, of a mountain race of people, independent, courageous and strong, being born only seven years after the American war of 1812, in the year when James Madison was president of the United States. At the age of twenty-six she became the wife of Henry Bielar, a sturdy young prove the hardest on which they had yet set forth.

With their four children, the Bielars fared forth by ox train over the great trail. Fortunately the party was unmolested and they got through without untoward mishap, enduring the usual hardships and arriving in good health in Butte county, where their fifth child was born. Thirty-six years ago the family came to northern Solano county where Henry Bielar died in 1889. Since which time the widow made her home on the ranch and for the several past years in Dixon at the home of her granddaughter, who has ever been most devoted and self-sacrificing in caring for the aging grandmother. This care had much to do in enabling Mrs. Bielar to reach her great age.

She is survived by three children, Mrs. Borchard of San Francisco, Mrs. W. Baker of Sacramento and Jacob Bielar of Nevada, fourteen grandchildren of whom John, Robert, Henry McElwaine and Mrs. Floreth, of Dixon, Sacramento and San Francisco are part.

There are thirty great grandchildren and four great great grandchildren, two of which are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin Horigan of this place.

Funeral Services

Funeral services will be held at St. Peter's church at 10:30 tomorrow. Burial in Dixon cemetery. The body will be carried by her grandsons, Henry, John and Robert McElwaine, Wm. and John Bielar of Willows and Jacob Bielar of Santa

Death of World War Veteran Ben Hayes

Feb. '41

Rutherford Ben Hayes, well known Dixon man, passed away at Yountville hospital for veterans on Friday. Heart trouble and low blood pressure was the cause. He had not been in good health since the world war in which he was gassed, permanently injuring his lungs, yet he kept on with the day's work, for years being night watchman on the police force and later constable of Silveyville township, which office he was holding at the time of his death.

Ben was a native of Pineville, Missouri. He came to Vacaville in 1895 with his father, then to Dixon, of which place he had been a resident for 45 years. His first employment was with the big ranchers of this end of the county. When the world war came on he was soon in camp with Company C, 59th infantry in France.

He was in the battles of the Marne, Aisne, St. Mihiel, Meuse and Argonne, and was mustered out a sergeant. He saw a lot of tough service and was wounded and gassed. When it was all over he set about rehabilitating himself and earning his own way.

Twelve years ago Miss Anna Chesworth became his wife. A few weeks ago they started erection of a cottage on east A Street with the intention of making it their home. In a month it will be finished and occupied by Mrs. Hayes.

Besides a wife, the deceased veteran leaves three sisters, Mrs. Gieger of Alameda, one in Missouri and another in Los Angeles.

Funeral services were held under the auspices of Dixon Post at Legion hall Monday afternoon. The Legion ceremony was given

Mrs. Clara Belle Steinmiller passed away at her home on the west side on Tuesday night, in her 73d year. Heart trouble and hardening of the arteries was the cause of death. She had been slowly failing for some time, and for the last two months had felt that her leave-taking was inevitable and gave suggestions as to whom to give certain of her possessions and keepsakes.

Funeral services were privately conducted at the home by Rev. R. Burrow, a former M. E. pastor in Dixon and neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Steinmiller, on Thursday afternoon, with interment in the Dixon cemetery.

Clara Rockwood was born in Kansas, and was a child of the plains for she crossed them with her parents in a schooner wagon party at the age of 6 or 7. They had no exciting experiences on the long journey, but she related to her children and grandchildren things that were wonderful to her, with the circling of the wagons for the night camp, and the going to bed mindful that they might be visited by a raiding party of Indians, and awakening in the morning glad that none had disturbed them.

The Rockwoods settled not far from the present town of Escondido in San Diego county, where Clara grew to womanhood, and in 1882 became engaged to George Steinmiller, of the same county. The wedding took place in San Francisco, the young lady coming by boat for the important event. They returned to San Diego county where they made their home for a time, but not for long, and were on the way north again, settling at Sacramento, where a son, George, now a prominent Reno dentist, was born. From that city they came to Dixon where Mr. Steinmiller bought the harness and saddlery business of Frank Reichle in 1893.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Steinmiller leaves two children, the Doctor at Reno, Mrs. Bottleson of San Francisco, a sister in San Diego.

Mrs. Nye Passes Away in Oakland

Former Tribune Editor Dies at 85

H. W. Bessac, former publisher of the Dixon Tribune, died last week-end, in his 85th year, at Palo Alto, where he and his daughter, Grace, went to make their home a few years ago.

Bessac published a half dozen newspapers in his time. He founded the Long Beach Journal, edited a paper in another southern California town, then went to Montesano, Washington, from which state he came to Dixon and bought the Tribune from Dick Moss, operated it a few years, sold to the present editor in 1913 and went to Brentwood. He was attracted by the little city of Palo Alto, covered up the ink well for keeps, and comfortably established himself in a little home in the university town, where he was shortly joined by his daughter.

The former Dixon resident was always a gentleman, a courteous and conservative editor, always advocating his town's best interests, a high type of citizen, a good Mason, and reared his family well. The children were four sons and a daughter, Miss Grace, Charles and Eugene living with them in Dixon. Charles is now a banker in Vallejo, Gene a publisher at River Bank, and Grace at Palo Alto.

DIXON GIRL MARRIES AT RENO

Miss Jessie Lee Ashby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby of this place, and Gordon Stephen, of Sacramento, made a trip to Reno last Saturday, called at the home of a preacher, stated their case, presented the requisite "credentials," came back to Sacramento Mr. and Mrs. Stephen.

The bride is a graduate of Dixon high, always popular among the young people, and was in the Dixon office of Pacific Gas & Electric Company, at one of whose social affairs she met the young man who quite made up his mind to make the attractive young lady his wife. Stephen receives a substantial pay check from P. G. & E. every month in Sacramento, where he is employed. Manager Sedgwick says that arrangements have been made to place another "candidate for matrimonial honors" at the desk of the local office.

John J. Vanetti, 23, and Miss Mary Soares, 25, both of this place, have taken out a permit at Sacramento to wed.

Mrs. Rogers left her native state of Mississippi when a small child, her parents going to Illinois, thence to Nebraska. She also lived in Colorado, from which state Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers came to Dixon two years ago to make their home in the same town as their son, Chester Rodgers. She is survived by her husband, a son in Dixon and a daughter in Seattle.

He must have been a very quiet boy, for it was two weeks before we heard that he was in the town. Alluding to Sanford Laverne, a fine little fellow who took up his permanent abode in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Jackson of this place.

MRS. MARTIN PASSES AWAY

The long period of failing health for Mrs. J. P. Martin came to an end on Tuesday morning, when she entered into her final rest. She passed away in her 75th year in the city of Oakland, to which place she was taken by her daughter Mrs. Ann Randle to more comfortably spend the winter season.

Services were conducted in Oakland, and at the grave-side in Dixon yesterday afternoon, with her pastor the Reverend John Phillips of the First Baptist church of Oakland leading the services.

Mrs. Martin was the last of the three daughters who were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Geddis Brinkerhoff, '49 pioneers, who after seeking their fortune elsewhere in the state for a few years came to northern Solano county to ranch, ultimately acquiring 800 acres of good land. They built a large house, now the property of the T. Eibe estate north of Dixon.

Miss Georgia Brinkerhoff became the wife of John P. Martin, farmer, auctioneer, and for a term sheriff of Solano county. They prospered, and in 1911 came to Dixon from the ranch to make their home, the large, white house on First Street being erected for that purpose. Here they spent several happy years, entertaining many friends and their children. The first break in the family came in January of 1924 when Mr. Martin died. Mrs. Martin is survived by her two sons, John of Modesto, George of this place, and daughter Mrs. Ann Randle of Dixon. Her sisters, Mrs. Harkinson and Mrs. Forward, passed away a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Ashby announce the marriage of their daughter Margaret
to Mr. Melvin Joy
on Saturday, the second day of October
Nineteen hundred and twenty-six Dixon, California

until her marriage in 1864, when she moved to Maine Prairie. The remainder of her life was spent in Yolo and Solano counties.

She leaves two children, Mrs. Jakie Grieves, and Jas. H. Deck, both of Davis. She has two grandchildren, Jack Grieves, and Mrs. A. R. Asbill of Middletown. There are four great grand children, Billy, Jane, John P., and Agnes Asbil.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the home of Jas. H. Deck, Davis, and interment was in the Dixon cemetery where are buried her husband and two children.

Miss Ashby Bride of Melvin Joy

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ashby, Miss Margaret Ashby will become the bride of Melvin Joy. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. E. L. Rich at 12 o'clock. After luncheon the couple will depart for "parts unknown." In due season they will return to make their home in Dixon, where the groom is a prosperous and hustling young rancher. Only the relatives and a few close friends were in attendance at the wedding. Miss Ashby has been in the employ of the Dixon Drug Company and has many friends in the community who wish her much joy and heartily congratulate the groom.

JOY-ASHBY—In Fairfield, Solano County, October 1, 1925, to Jerome Joy, 26, and Margaret Lucille Ashby, 21, both of Dixon, Solano County.

JOHNSON-LITTLE—Thornton Johnson, 23, Dixon, and Ruth Little, 23, Sacramento.

Thornton Johnson and Miss Ruth Little surprised their respective parents last Thursday when they returned married from Sacramento. The young bride is a daughter of J. A. Little of this place and has been employed for some time in the State Agricultural Department at Sacramento. Thornton is 24, was born and raised in Dixon, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Johnson.

Some Dads are too modest. We include in that class Warren Cecil and Hardin Reddick. Several days have passed since important events in their homes without even a whisper to the press. A boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reddick and a girl at the Cecils.

Gil Jansen went to Artois, Tuesday, to attend the funeral of a brother, who died at the age of 75. On the same train with Mr. Jansen were Mr. and Mrs. Claus Frahm of San

DEATH OF OLD SETTLER

John M. Maxwell, one of the pioneer ranchers of Solano county, died at Woodland clinic Saturday morning and the body interred in the cemetery at Tremont on Monday.

Pneumonia, contracted seventeen days before his death, was the cause of Mr. Maxwell's demise. A few months ago he successfully underwent an operation for stomach trouble and was fully recovered. He engaged in light work and made a trip to southern California with his daughter, Miss Jessie.

He is survived by his sister, Miss Isabelle Maxwell, and five children, George, John, Mrs. Grace Weber of Yolo county, Miss Jessie and William, who is attending University of Nevada.

John Maxwell was one of two brothers born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Maxwell, the former of whom came from Scotland. Young William Maxwell died at 24, and when John was 14 his father died and he had to begin playing a man's part in caring for the ranch, going to school during the winter. About 39 years ago Miss Nora Cameron, a Tehama county young lady who taught school in the Maxwell neighborhood became his bride.

For over sixty years the deceased had lived on his Solano county ranch, practically all his life for he was 67 years old at the time of his death. Ranching was not the easiest thing in those days. Roads in the winter time were a fright, and some years the flood waters of the Sacramento river rose high—for it has only been in late years that the state made provision against flood water. It was one of the big floods of the river, in 1861, that swept away all the farming property of his father on the river and impelled him to buy a pre-emption farther west in Tremont township. Sacramento was the trading point of the Maxwells; necessitating a ferryage of the river every time they "went to town." There was no Dixon, and Maine Prairie was the big point until the coming of the railway.

At Tremont, now chiefly noted as the location of the new community dance hall, was a school, store, neighbors. He could always be trusted to do the square thing, and his part when anything was wanted for the good of the community. He farmed well and raised a good family of children, who are now carrying on ranching so creditably.

DEATH OF JOHN FRITZ

After an illness of a few years duration, John F. Fritz died at his home east of town Monday of this week. He was 68 years and 9 months old. Funeral services were held at the house at 2:00 Wednesday, with services at the cemetery under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, of which lodge the deceased had long been a member.

Mr. Fritz came to Folsom from Pennsylvania in his 22d year, and after working there came to Dixon in 1879. He found employment on ranches and he was one whose services were sought as he was a man who knew how to work in a way to produce the greatest results. Tiring of working for others, and with enough saved up to enable him to make a purchase, he obtained 320 acres of land from the McCune interests. This he farmed profitably, but disposed of most of the ranch to advantage, retaining the forty-four acres that became the permanent home. Twenty-two years ago Miss Amelie Austermuehle became his wife. Mr. Fritz was a good farmer, a good neighbor, kindly disposition, enjoyed the company of others and kept himself posted on current events, enjoying good reading and good lectures. He was one of the very first farmers to put down a deep-well, electrically operated pump for irrigation of some of his land.

Mr. Fritz leaves no children, and his only brother and sister died several years ago. Mrs. London, who formerly taught in the Dixon grammar school, now in Oakland, is a niece; Mrs. E. Benson, of Oakland, is also a niece, and Arthur Clawson, of Seattle, is a nephew. An uncle, now 99 years old, survives him in Pennsylvania. Philo Fritz, a second cousin, came from Trinity county during his last days of illness.

Those from out of town at the funeral were: Mrs. Wright and daughter, from Berkeley; Mrs. Ewald Mrs. Reubolt, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. London of Oakland; Mrs. E. Benson and daughter, Oakland; Mrs. Lester Dotters, San Francisco.

complains of the failure, from freezing, of a large proportion of the grape cuttings set in that vicinity
last spring, says they came principally from Napa county and that
"their disposal by vineyardists there was an imposition and an outrage."
We do not think that any bad cuttings were knowingly sold by people here. Many such were sold, but they were thought at the time to be good, and our own people were as much deceived by them as any, for the frosted vines were planted here
the same as elsewhere and the result is we have many barren stretch-

The Doctor of Alcantara.

Representation of the comic opera "The Doctor of Alcantara" by local talent, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church, was an entertainment of no small merit. Prior to the opening of the romance, the stage manager announced owing to the illness of Mrs. J. A. Melton, management had found it necessary at the last moment, to secure Miss Esterby to personate Isabella, one of the principal characters, and asked the pardon due to her under the circumstances. The apology, so far as Miss Esterby was concerned, was unnecessary, for her successful rendition of the character as Isabella won for her the praises of all. Dennis Spencer, in her impersonation of Isabella perfectly at home, and her portrayal of the character, and the manner in which she rendered the numerous vocal scenes were highly creditable. Miss E. G. as Donna Lucrezia, manifested a true conception of the author's creation, the Mistress of the household, of Dr. Darby. C. A. Darby, who, since our knowledge of him, has enjoyed the reputation of being a vocalist of much ability, that he deserved the good opinion of those who know him, and his friends were amply justified with this new exhibition of his talents.

The difficult character of Doctor Darby was ably sustained by H. F. Craig, as Don Pomposo, and E. Dowd as Senor Balthazar, rendered the characters well. The chorus, composed of well trained voices, male and female, aided much in making the entertainment a complete success that it was.

PROGRAMME.

Home—The coming holidays.

This and That from the Calistogan.

Mrs. Silbert has sold the Buck place and other lands, four hundred acres in all, nearly west of town, and back of the Bailey and McFarling places, to a party in San Francisco. Consideration, $5000.

J. A. Chesebro, of the Magnolia Hotel, will give a Christmas Ball Dec. 25th, next Tuesday evening. He will have everything in complete order for a very enjoyable time, and those in this vicinity who wish to pass a few hours in the ball-room will no doubt improve the opportunity thus offered.

At the marriage of Thomas J. Bennett and Miss Christina Sues, which occurred Thursday evening of last week at the residence of the bridegroom's father, J. N. Bennett, near Calistoga, the number of relatives present was large, four generations of the family being represented, including the mother of Mrs. J. N. Bennett. Aside from the relatives there were only three or four persons present. The newly married couple received a pleasant surprise visit from many friends Saturday evening last.

Wednesday afternoon last H. S. Shamp narrowly escaped severe injury. He was burning stumps in a field near Napa creek, on Walnut Grove Farm, below Calistoga, when hunters came along and shot at a covey of quail, the shot striking a white oak sapling, glancing back and hitting him in the face, under the left eye, making a painful, though not serious wound. Thom. Steel, who lives two and one half miles below Calistoga, also has cause for complaint against the carelessness of sportsmen. A short time ago a rifle ball passed through the side of his house, and a watch-pocket hanging in it, then hit the head board of a bedstead, glanced and passed through a partition and a silk dress, then hit against the ceiling of an adjoining room and fell to the floor. The missile came from a rifle in the hands of one of the Kinkle boys, who live further down the valley.

Capello Items.

ED. REPORTER: Weather clear, cold and frosty, and our weather prophet predicts rain between now and July 4th.

D. Jackson and son are busily engaged in clearing off land. They expect to put out about twenty five acres in grape vines and orchard.

The teamster who was driving for H. Remple very nearly met with an accident the other day near Mr. McLaughlin's. As he was ascending the steep grade, the horses became entangled in such a manner that they all fell down and came very near turning the wagon over. The road was blocked for a half day and probably would have been until now, but for the timely assistance of Mr. Switzer. The gentleman says frozen roads was the cause of the accident but doubtless the direct cause was from unskillful handling of the reins.

There is some talk of the road being macadamized between Capello and Monticello. Samuel Bonham and William Bradshaw have been appointed viewers, Chas. Jackson having resigned.

W. H. Moss and O. A. Jackson are going down to Bridgeport to shoot at a match for

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.

June 10, 1893

On the first day of April, 1852, Samuel Cook and Amanda M. Graves were united in the bonds of holy wedlock at the residence of the bride's parents, Jas. and Margaret (Blackbourn) Graves, who resided in Georgetown township. By this union six children were born, viz: George W., who married Eliza Douglas; James P., who married Miss Eveline O'Neal; Mary, who married John H. Wherrey; Charley, who married Miss Celia Padgett, Margaraet [sic], who died when about eighteen years old, and Ellen, who died when six months old. After an unusually happy [married?] life of fourteen years, Mrs. Cook died on the 19th day of August, 1866. She was a model wife and mother, and had always striven to make home pleasant and comfortable for her husband and children, to whom she was devotedly attached. She was also a kind neighbor and was beloved by all who knew her.

Mr. Cook married the second time on the fourteenth day of April, 1870, to Mrs. Martha E. (Citizen) Moreland, at the home of the bride in Lafayette, Ind. Three children have been born to them, all of whom are living at the home of the parents, viz: Bertha J., who is a young lady, and John F. and Fred. All the living children of both wives reside in this county, and the sons by the first wife own fine farms of their own and are possessed of plenty of this world's goods.

Samuel Cook, the subject of this sketch, is a well known and prominent citizen of Catlin township, where he owns an excellent farm of 160 acres, besides 100 acres of farming land in Georgetown township and property in this city and other places. His father, James Cook, was a native of Virginia and was born June 3, 1797. His mother, Mrs. Susannah Moyer, was a Pennsylvanian by birth, and was born Dec. 12, 1803. They were married Oct. 6, 1822, and moved to Clermont county, Ohio, where they resided until 1834, when they moved to Vermilion county, Ill., settling at Brooks Point, where they lived until their death.

Six sons and five daughters were born to them, the subject of this sketch being the second child. He was born in Clermont county, Ohio, Oct. 4, 1826, and was nine years old when he came to this county with his parents, and although considerable over a half century has elapsed since that time his recollections of the trip and the hardships endured, is as fresh in his memory as though it were but yesterday. Mr. Cook was 29 years of age when he left the parental roof, married and established a home of his own. He has devoted himself to farming principally, and by persistent toil for many years, has succeeded in accumulating as fine a farm as there is in Catlin township, besides much other property. He is a democrat of the old school, is about 66 years old, hale and hearty, and good for many years of useful life yet.

Mr. Cook's second wife is the fourth of a family of nine children born to Mr. and Mrs. William and Esther (Parker) Citizen. She was born in Darke county, Ind., July 25, 1838. Her father was born in Maryland Nov. 10, 18[?]/9, and her mother in North Carolina Aug. 2, 1802, her death occurring in Warren county, Ind. When she was 2 years old, Mrs. [?]

Greenville H. Graves and Miss Mary Cook, whose names appear in the list of marriage licenses granted in 1834, in this county, were married Oct. 14, 1834, by Jacob Brazelton, justice of the peace in Georgetown township, at the residence of her parents in the southeast corner of Danville township, the occasion being one which created considerable social excitement in the neighborhood. The husband was the son of James H. Graves, who came to Vermilion county, Illinois, with his family about 1827, from Bourbon county, Kentucky, where he was born and raised, locating near Georgetown. He died in 1857. Greenville H. Graves was 12 years old when he came to Illinois. There were born to them nine children, seven of whom are now living, three boys and four girls, viz: Mrs. Samuel W. Black, Westville; Mrs. J. H. Dougherty, Fairmount; L. T. Graves, Danville; B. S. Graves, Springfield; James H. Graves, Kansas; Mrs. Albert Russell, Burlington, Iowa, and Mrs. Samuel Leaverton, Sheridan, Wyoming Ter. Miss Mary Cook, daughter of Larkin Cook, was eight years older than her husband, and died at the old homestead four miles from Danville, in 1863. Mr. Graves married the second time to Miss Sarah J. Davis, of Shelby county, Illinois, at the home of the bride, in 1864. Three children were born to them, one living, Julia, who married Dolph Clark, formerly of Lincoln, Ill., now of Bellingham Bay, Washington. Mr. Graves died in the year 1885, and Mrs. Graves in 1886, at the old homestead near this city.

John Cook and Evaline Graves, whose names also appear in the list printed below, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Graves, in the southeast corner of Georgetown township, April 10, 1834, by Jacob Brazelton, justice of the peace. The bride was the sister of Greenville H. Graves, mentioned in the sketch above and a young lady of extensive acquaintance in those days, very popular and a leader in the innocent amusements of society. John Cook was the son of Larkin Cook, who was a native of Ohio and came to Vermilion county in 1828, settling in the southeast part of Danville township, and where himself and wife lived and died at a good old age. Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, all of whom are now living and married, viz: Oliver, residing at Princeton, Illinois, and reputed to be very wealthy; D. F. Cook, Hamilton county, Nebraska, and Melvina, who resides at Guthrie Center, Iowa.* Mr. Cook married the second time to a widow lady residing in Shelbyville, Shelby county, Illinois, whose maiden name was Harvey.

In 1885 Mr. Cook died at his home in Bureau county, this state, near Princeton. His widow is still living, residing at Guthrie Center, Iowa.

Martin Lafferty, one of the best known men in Vermilion county, during his lifetime, and more particularly during the great rebellion, was born at the old homestead near what is known as "the backbone," four miles from Danville. He was the son of Patrick Lafferty, an Irishman, who came to Vermilion county in the 20's and a brother of Capt. Ed Lafferty of this city. He was a republican in the fullest sense of the word, and during the war, although too old to take the field, was nevertheless an indefatigable worker at home. He sent three sons to the war, all the children he had living, two of whom -- Patrick and Edward -- were killed in the charge at Kenesaw mountain, Ga., June 27, 1864, falling near each other and almost at the same time. Col. O. F. Harmon of the 125th Illinois, to whose command they belonged, was killed at the same time. The death of his two brave boys was a severe shock to himself and wife. The other son, John, was also in the 125th Illinois, served his time, and is now residing near Grape Creek. Mr. Lafferty died in 1876, and his remains now lie at rest in the old Kinney burying ground near Grape Creek, where lies the dust of his father, wife and two patriotic sons, Patrick and Edward.

Mr. Lafferty was married in 1835 to Miss Betsy Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Cook, who lived on a farm in the southwest corner of Vermilion county. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, by John H. Murphy, Justice of the peace, Nov. 12, 1835. Mrs. Lafferty died in the year 1882, loved and respected by all who knew her.

She was first married in Warren county, Ind., Aug. 25, 1854, to Joseph Moreland, who died in the 60s. One son, Charles W., was born to them, an intelligent, well educated young man who is still living.

Mrs. Cook makes a model wife and mother, and there are no happier homes in Vermilion county than that of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cook of Catlin township.

June 17, 1893

On the first day of October 1852, Robert V. Chesley and Miss Helen M. Russell were united in marriage by Rev. Enoch Kingsbury, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Danville. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Russell, who resided at that time on Lafayette street, where Irad Abdill now lives. This was then the old Russell homestead. The usual congratulations and festivities of pioneer days followed the ceremony.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Chesley, all of whom are now living and reside in this city, viz: Charles E., who married Miss Ida Dicken, daughter of David S. Dicken of Ridge Farm; Fred H. who married Miss Bessie Thomas; John T., who married Miss Lydia Hamnett; Louis A., who married Miss Helen Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, residing on north Hazel street, and Helen M., who married Wm. Rowlson, a carriage painter, employed at the Danville Buggy Co. All of the Chesley boys are first class business men and are engaged in lines of busi-

Paschal Hickman was one of the sons of John Wm. Hickman, a famous pioneer Baptist minister. The Kentucky County of Hickman, was named for this Captain Paschal Hickman, who distinguished himself with great bravery in the Indian Wars. He was commissioned in 1812, as a volunteer company and joined Col. John Allen, and was massacred by the Indians after the British immediately following the battle of River Raisin.

Anthony Thomson, son and namesake of Anthony Thomson, a soldier of the French and Indian War, who settled in Woodford County with his family after the revolution. The bondsman, Samuel Waddy, was a cousin of the Ganos. In as much as a very full family history of the Lewis family, lately published, shows that all trace of him has been lost it might be well to state that his numerous estates and distinguished descendants have always preserved a record of their illustrious ancestry. He was the only child of John and Jane Cobbs Waddy, both well known in Louisa County, Virginia. The mother of Samuel Waddy was the wife, first of Samuel Cobbs, second of John Thomson—a daughter of Col. Robert the Warner Hall—Lewis family and celebrated explorer Meriwether Lewis. Samuel Waddy came to Kentucky with Thomson relatives, settled in Shelby County where many of his descendants were married three times; first to a cousin, second to a Deputy, and third to a Hobbs. There were no children of the first and second marriages but there were eight, all since long dead. The two youngest, William Lewis (1806), who married Maria Louise (1806), still living, and Amanda M. Waddy, still living, second of B. F. Donnell. (To be continued.)
